SOUTHBOUND I-215 ON RAMP AT BOX SPRINGS IS GONE AS WE KNOW IT

Riverside - The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) will permanently close the on ramp at Box Springs to the southbound I-215. The closure will allow construction to progress on the Box Springs Bridge. The closure of the on ramp will be on Tuesday, October 24th and will not open to motorists in the future.

Those wishing to access southbound I-215 will no longer be able to as they are accustomed. Upon completion of the Box Springs area, late 2007, motorists will come onto the southbound I-215 from Sycamore Canyon Road, just south of the existing Box Springs Bridge. The on ramp will no longer be called Box Springs, it will be known as Sycamore Canyon.

While construction is on going, motorists can access southbound I-215 from either Central Avenue or Eucalyptus Avenue from Sycamore Canyon Road.

Caltrans thanks motorists for their continued patience and support and asks that motorists please be aware of the construction area and always make a point to
