REVISED

SOUTHBOUND I-215 ON RAMP AT BOX SPRINGS NOT YET CLOSED

Riverside - The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) will delay the closure of the on ramp at Box Springs to the southbound I-215. The closure of the on ramp will be on Monday, November 6th and as indicated before, will not open to motorists in the future.

Those wishing to access southbound I-215 will no longer be able to as they are accustomed. Upon completion of the Box Springs area, late 2007, motorists will come onto the southbound I-215 from Sycamore Canyon Road, just south of the existing Box Springs Bridge. The on ramp will no longer be called Box Springs, it will be known as Sycamore Canyon.

While construction is on going, motorists can access southbound I-215 on Sycamore Canyon and east at Eastridge/Eucalyptus and northbound on Sycamore Canyon to Central Avenue.

Caltrans thanks motorists for their continued patience and support and asks that motorists please be aware of the construction area and always make a point to
